GR8 2 CU!

TN2 is a place for you to get info and meet new people. We won't talk down to you and you can ask about anything.

- Got questions about your treatment or medical jargon? Ask our nurse for confidential information.
- Thinking about the future? We can give you info about learning to drive, jobs, study, travel, and careers.
- Telling it like it is: Got any potentially embarrassing questions? We've tried to be as frank as possible about issues you might face when you have a bleeding disorder. You can ask us in confidence about anything.
- BOYS: questions about sport, health, relationships? Find out here.

Why not add us on Facebook?

- You could sign up get your own free membership of the Haemophilia Society, independent of your parents.
- Fun Stuff: Get some light relief with awards, holidays, games, and lots of brilliant competitions. Win win win.
- GIRLS: Women and girls can be affected by bleeding disorders too. Maybe you know you're a carrier of haemophilia and you want to ask questions about the future. Maybe you have symptoms yourself like heavy periods. We'll answer your questions as best we can.
